12. Bid Evaluation

12.1 Phase I – Formal and Eligibility Evaluation

The bidders invited to this tender are already formally checked and found eligible according to the received Request for Information Form (RFI) or Expression of Interest (EOI). Thus, re-submitting formal documents is not necessary except for the following:

- Submitting the approved tender Annexes before the tender closing date.
- CV of the candidate(s)

Following the bid openings, an additional round of revision will be carried out concerning the information submitted by the bidders to guarantee the precision of the formal evaluation.

In this step, the criteria of pass/fail (Yes/No) will be applied, and the interested bidders must carefully follow the above criteria, The offers with "No" mean the relevant documents are missing and will not be considered in the next evaluation phases.

12.2 Phase II – Technical evaluation (70%)

Bids that pass the preliminary evaluation are subjected to a technical evaluation against the technical and qualification evaluation criteria listed in Annex 3 - Technical assessment grid obtained from the requirements specification, as well as from any qualification conditions as specified in the ToR. Only offers that received a minimum of 50% will be considered for the subsequent stages.

12.3 Phase III – Financial evaluation (30%)

Only the price offers of bids with at least 50% points will be opened and subjected to financial assessment which assesses the price (/cost) and any related commercial terms , The awarded Bidder will be selected based on overall scores obtained in the technical and financial evaluation.

13. Tender Result

The successful bidders and unsuccessful bidders will be notified upon completion of the evaluation and awarding process.

14. Negotiations

GIZ reserves the right to negotiate the price with the highest technically ranked or all offers that are technically compliant.

15. Contract

After the evaluations are completed, GIZ reserves the right to share the notice award email with the most compliant Bidder based on the accepted technical offer, and prices indicated in Annex 2 – Bid form, the notice award email is to invite the awarded Company to the GIZ country office – in Iraq to sign the Contract and special agreement, and then the contractor can start the implementation.

16. Payment Terms

- Payment will be issued only through Bank transfer.
- Payment will be released based on the negotiated payment plan.
- All the services are against proof of Evidence , payment occurs when services are rendered.

- There is no provision of verbal agreement, therefore, both parties must mutually agree on any changes and document them in written form
- GIZ will not be responsible if the local Bank of the Contractor converts the payments into another currency. The contractor is not entitled to claim any charges or fees deducted by the Bank due to the exchange and/or transfer of payments.
- The normal payment terms by GIZ are 30 (thirty) days, upon satisfactory delivery of goods or performance of services. Bidders must therefore clearly specify in their bid the payment terms being offered.
- Any attempt to submit fraudulent or fake proofs of payment evidence including invoices, bills, receipts…etc. will be thoroughly validated and investigated by GIZ; the contractor will be subject to non-compliant behavior and therefore prohibited from further tender invitations.
